History of Just The Tonic

Just The Tonic is a comedy establishment based on providing quality line-ups wherever it entertains. In the last 20 years JTT has grown steadily from its original Nottingham base. In 2012 JTT opened it's doors to it's sister venue in Leicester, winning Best Venue at Dave's Leicester Comedy Festival 2013. It has continued to provide top quality comedy line-ups nationally and internationally including the prestigious Edinburgh Fringe Festival. Whether it's new and upcoming acts, big name TV comedians or alternative comedy, Just The Tonic offers it all.

Big Value Comedy Auditions

Every year Just The Tonic audition hundreds of acts from around the country to take part in our Edinburgh Showcase 'The Big Value Comedy Shows'. These shows have always proved to be a sell-out success during the Fringe and provide many acts with a starting ground to develop into household stars. Names include Micky Flanagan, Jason Manford, Lee Mack, Sarah Millican, Milton Jones, and Jon Richardson to name but a few.

Edinburgh Fringe

The Edinburgh Fringe Festival is the largest cultural event in the world and it comes as no surprise that Just The Tonic have staked a claim within the madness of it all. Currently holding a residency within the uniquely historical Caves and other venues around the city, they exhibit up to 80 shows a day.

Venues we have previously booked for include:

London

- Residency at Leicester Square Theatre
- Bloomsbury Theatre
- Union Chapel
- Various other venues around London

Midlands

- Royal Concert Hall - Nottingham
- Theatre Royal - Lincoln
- Loughborough Town Hall - Loughborough
- Telford Theatre - Telford

International

- China Comedy Club - Shanghai

Plus many other student and council run venues around the country

Tour Productions

Just The Tonic has booked for national and international tours and festivals including Edinburgh, Melbourne and Adelaide Comedy Festivals.
