Big Value Comedy Shows

The longest running stand up compilation show on the fringe. We ask promoter Darrell Martin to take a look at it's fine heritage.

Starting in 1996, with a line up that included Milton Jones and Adam Bloom, the Big Value Comedy Shows have been selecting the stars of the future for almost 25 years.

Comedians such as Jim Jeffries, Sarah Millican, Jon Richardson and Romesh Ranganathan are some of those who were first exposed to the delights of Edinburgh with the Big Value Comedy Show.

The show is currently produced by Darrell Martin, who runs Just the Tonic. It wasn't always that way. Many years ago Darrell was a keen performer that was desperate to be part of the show.

Pete Harris was the person who set it all up. He ran a chain of clubs called Screaming Blue Murder. According to Adam Bloom, it all came out of a conversation where Adam said to Pete that he wanted to go to Edinburgh but couldn't afford it. Within a day or 2 Pete came back to him with the concept of 'The Big Value Comedy Show'.

Big Value Comedy Show 2005

“ I have very fond memories of doing Big Value. It was a lovely way to do what can be a tough festival on a new act. I grew as a comic and made some great memories. ”

“ Big Value is the best compilation show at The Fringe. It's an excellent barometer of people who are going to go on to big things. And I'm not just saying that because I did it.

ROMESH
RANGANATHAN

Big Value Comedy Show 2011 + 2012

Big Value Comedy Show Early Show is at 19:30 and the Late Show is at 21:45 at Just there Tonic at The Grassmarket Centre.

Darrell tells us: "By the time I was trying to get involved as a compere, it was already respected amongst acts, and that was only 2000. I remember it already seemed like a really established thing.

At the time I was living in Nottingham and there were not many clubs outside of London. I would travel down to London to compere at Pete's club in Kingston, in the hope of getting selected. The excitement of getting offered a place was amazing. The way the show was structured was great. Pete paid for everything, even our train tickets. All of the marketing was done by the acts (handing out flyers) and there was a profit split at the end.

The free fringe did not exist then, and there was no real way to come up to Edinburgh unless you were paying a huge load of money to the big fancy venues. To get onto Big Value meant loads to me.

The year I was on I compared the early show and in our year of doing it there was Sally Holloway, Susan Murray, Glenn Wool, Greg Burns, Marty Wilson, Johnny Candon and a certain Micky Flanagan.

In 2001 I received a call asking if I wanted to put a show in the Café Royal because Pete was jacking it all in. I was a promoter as well as a performer. So, I called Pete and asked him if I could use the name. He generously agreed. I kept the whole format the same, except I made a conscious effort to make the selecting less Londoncentric.

In the years that followed the whole festival has changed. The Café Royal shut down (it had been taken over and very badly run... long story). The Big Value carried on each year. It has been in Underbelly, in a tent at the back of C Venue Adams Building. (There is now an IBIS Hotel on the site), and in The Big Cave. It is now in The Grassmarket Centre.

Over the years we have auditioned hundreds of people, and taken a lot of comedians up to the festival. Some of them become regular acts on the circuit. Some go on to become big stars. Some go off and do other things. But each year we try and bring varied and interesting shows.

GARY DELANEY

Big Value Comedy Show 2003

“Big Value is boot camp for young comics. I had a great time, played to amazing audiences and learned how to become a better comic.”

PREVIOUS COMEDIANS
Include...

We have included a list of some of the acts we have had up until 2012 that have gone on to become known outside of the circuit. There are others, but the list would have been too big. We didn't bother with after 2012 because you probably wouldn't have heard of them (yet), but it would include the likes of Adam Rowe and Kiri Pritchard McLean. You probably wouldn't have heard of Micky Flanmaghan in 2007 or Romesh Ranganathan until 2 years ago! (unless you'd been to Big Value Comedy Show)

Come and see who we have this year. They are always great shows. You get a 2 hour show (including 2 drinks breaks) and it is a variety night. We love it... we hope you do too!

“ Big Value brought me to Edinburgh before anyone else had even heard of me. The line ups they've had speak for themselves. I enjoyed every minute of my year in the Big Value Show. I worked with some amazing comics and it was the first step on an Edinburgh journey which has made me the comic I am today.

MAY ALL OUR VOICES BE HEARD

Welcome seeker of joy! Look around this fringe festival and you may wonder 'what is this word fringe?'. You may be overwhelmed by the capitalist trappings of corporate venues sucking in the hard laboured for pennies of the entertainment hungry masses. Performance spaces selling wares they are paid to display, inflated prices and propaganda peddled by TV hungry visages. Big boards shouting! 'Is this fringe?'

Come away from the noise and hear us. Nestled in the heart of the old town you shall find us, the fringe of the fringe. Mavericks and outsiders, dreamers and artists. Just the Tonic. We are aptly named for we offer relief. Relief from the pre packaged, and the sterile. Our endorsement is not for sale! We are truly independent. Our wares are the raw talent that the dealmakers will steal in the future. Our refreshments we choose for our own rejuvenation and offer them to you. Come vivify your festival at our font of pleasure!

REVEL WITH US AND HEAR OUR NOISE!

JOEY PAGE: GETTING TO KNOW YOU

HELP YOURSELF AND HELP JOEY BY DEFINING YOUR FRINGE FESTIVAL PERSONA IN THIS HIGHLY RESEARCHED AND AUTHENTIC QUESTION AND ANSWER FORMAT. YOU MIGHT EVEN WIN A PRIZE!

WHAT TYPE OF AUDIENCE MEMBER ARE YOU?

- A You go to as many shows as humanly possible seeing as many acts for the first time trying to become so culturally woke that begin to write a blog about live performance.
- B You see mainly free shows and have a dilemma about how much to put in the bucket and if the bucket is made from recycled plastic.
- C You're not really arsed about shows you would rather sit in bars drinking prosecco and shop all day on Princes street.

WHAT KIND OF COMEDY DO YOU GO AND SEE?

- A You will see anything and everything, however you also make an extra special effort to go and see Joey Page.
- B You go and see any show that is thought provoking, about the environment or where you can charge your mobile phone in a plug at the back of the room. You also pre book a ticket to see Joey Page you have no idea who he is but you've heard there is a buzz about him.
- C You only see Scottish comics called Ian or Scott.

WHAT KIND OF LATE-NIGHT ACTIVITIES DO YOU DO?

- A Get to bed at a sensible time as you have a blog entry to write and you really want to check out an interpretive dance version of Stranger Things at Summerhall at 9.30am
- B You hang out at the Pleasance Dome hoping to catch a glimpse of a celebrity comedian coming down from the performers bar smashed off their face on gin, whilst you drink small batch ales and talk to your friends about being polyamorous.
- C You go to a local bar that you normally drink in that is unsullied by all the fringe numpties bringing their dreams and stupid costumes to an already too busy city.

MOSTLY A'S - You are the perfect punter that we wish we could be like. However, be careful too much culture and will end up starting your own grassroots theatre company.

MOSTLY B'S - You're under 26, you are easily influenced and constantly worried about offending anyone so you stay glued to your screen for safety.

MOSTLY C'S - You're a local you have soo much extra cash after renting your 2 bed home out to 54 comedians at the princely sum of £23000 for the month. You are throwing cash around like nobody's business whilst constantly moaning about all these artsy idiots ruining your city.

SPOONING WITH URI

My name is George Rigden, I'm a stand up comedian and as a child I was friends with world-famous cutlery botherer & scientifically proven psychic* Uri Geller. That photo was taken of us together after I'd attended an Exeter City game as one of his 2 guests of honour. For gravity - David Prowse (Darth Vader/The Green Cross Man) was the other.

Don't worry, dear reader - I know what you're thinking:

'How did this come about?', 'How does he bend spoons?', 'Are you ok?'

All your questions - and more (for a supplementary fee) will be answered if you attend my show - 'Spoonin' With Uri', the bizarre but true story of that friendship.

*don't google it.
