

Good Behaviour Cash Bond

Here at Just The Tonic we want everyone to enjoy the night, this is why we ask all groups of ten or more to leave a Good Behaviour Cash Bond. We do not aim to keep the money but find it acts as a good incentive for large groups to respect other customers and the comedians.

We use the behaviour bond when a party of ten or more comes to Just The Tonic. We require a £10 deposit per person is collected by the group organiser and given to our box office staff before any members of the group enter the venue. As long as all the terms below are kept to, we will return the money once the comedy event is over. To reclaim the deposit we ask the organiser of the group to return their signed copy of this form to a member of the Just The Tonic Team. If this form is lost, you will be able to collect the deposit the following working day by prior arrangement. You will need to provide a valid passport or photographic driving licence to do so.

Just The Tonic reserves the right to make deductions from or retain the full amount. Any deductions made will be a consequence of any of our conditions being breached; we aim to be proportionate and fair but any deductions will be made depending on the seriousness of any disturbances. Any decisions made by the Just The Tonic Staff are final.

Our Conditions

- 1) All members of your party are expected to be polite, respectful and courteous to all other customers, staff and comedians.
- 2) We do not allow any use of a mobile phone during the show. This includes texting, phone calls, filming and flash photography.
- 3) Constant talking, abusive and heckling, not in keeping with the spirit of the show.

You will be given fair warning of all breaches before any deductions are made. If seen fit, members of your party may be asked to leave the venue if staff believe them to be disruptive. As stated above we really do not aim to keep any bonds as this means the night has been affected.

I have read, acknowledge and agree to these conditions in full. I will make all members of the party aware of these conditions and fully understand that deductions and or retention of the bond may come as a result of the party's behaviour.
