PRESCRIBED FOR GOOD TIMES!

WE OFFER CLARITY AND INSPIRATION IN AN UNCERTAIN WORLD

Humanity's certainties, those that most of us have lived within for generations, are being dismantled by a bombastic few. These fraudsters promised snake oil and instead have wrought destruction upon nations.

As we attempt to navigate this dystopian present, unable to comprehend the full implications of the metaphorical bombs dropping around society, we offer solace and escape. Escape rooms, you might say. Rooms of distraction, of laughter, of play, and of truth.

Places where humanity can once again touch humanity. Places from which we may rise with renewed hope and the realisation that mankind is more than the titans of modern ruin. That we, as a majority, remain a force for good capable of overcoming the transitory instability that surrounds us.

We are the descendants of millennia of greatness. We have survived everything evil has hurled at our ancestors, and we stand as proof that the malevolent puppet masters who temporarily dominate our age shall themselves prove fleeting. Humanity, as a whole, shall overcome.

So come within the chambers of Just the Tonic. Drink deeply from the enduring human spirit of creativity, and forget the chaos beyond these walls.

MCVEA AND REA GO AWAY

Rea and McVea

Two very different comedians make Fringe Debut in McVea and Rea Go Away. Sam McVea; autistic, with unashamed confidence and unpredictable energy. Will Rea; neurotic and overthinking, telling honest stories that might entertain or make you cringe. With a clear generation gap and contrasting styles, this fast-paced split bill mixes chaos, honesty and changing forfeits into a show full of surprises.
